

Old Home Day Awards

OHD Scholarship recipients: Elizabeth “Whitney” Cook and Charlotte Copp

Conservationis of the yeart: Lynn Knight

Carlisle’s Most Honored Citizen: Ellen Huber

Art Show

Chairperson: Peggy Wang

Best in Show:

Isabella Synnestvedt (Tree House)

-IsabellaSynnestvedt

First Place:

K-4: Claire Beckley (Little Barn Owl)

5-8: J. Lee Tang (Lemons)

9-12: Samantha Herr (Paris)

Adults: Mary Beth Stevenson (Quilt – Love Is)

Professional – D’Ann Brownrigg (Red-breasted Nuthatch)

Second Place:

K-4: Thomas Junasz (Untitled)

5-8: Caroline Stevenson (Sailboats)

9-12: No entries

Adults: Rebecca Bishop (The lady)

Professional: Pauline Arms (DeBarna’s Pub)

Third Place:

K-4: Christopher Adamcheck (Pink Bird)

5-8: Suzanne Kalkstein (Pastel drawing)

9-12: No entries

Adults: Sarah Sutton (Historical Fabric)

Professional: Camille Galejs

Cake Decorating

Chairperson: Donna Cantrill

There were some extraordinarily decorated cakes this year. These are the results of the top entries in their respective categories:

High School

-CakeTreeFB

The Carlisle Tweet Tree, Family Cake winner.

1. “Birds Net”
2. “Follow Me”

3. "Carlisle"

All decorated by: Claire Brandhorst, Mary Kate Joyce, Amanda Shorey and Emma Selve

Middle School

1. "Carlisle Tweets are Sweet" by Lauren McIlhenny
2. The Cramer Family Cake by Isabel and Morgan Cramer
3. "The Last Tweet" by James Sibley

Adults

1. "Message Not Received" by Sadina Videbole and Maggie Prentice
2. "Murica" by Sydney Callahan and Diana Winter
3. "RIP Red" by K. Marsh

Family Cakes

1. The Carlisle Tweet Tree by Ava Dominguez and Lynn Clarkson
2. "Butterfly Musical" by Clara Floyd
3. "Flappy Bird" by Lucie Keen

Pie Baking

Chairpersons: Sally Duscha and Niles Cocanour

A great turnout of some of the tastiest pies yet. The judges were heard to make such comments as, "Wow," "it tastes like a walk in Maine," "the perfect crust," "a wild-berry explosion in the mouth," "oh, this is smooth," "this is a skip-dinner-and-go-straight-to-dessert pie!" and "it tastes like my grand-mother's pie," to list just a few. They were excellent examples of superb pie baking, and judging by the line of folks to taste the entries, the rest of Carlisle agrees.

Category: Junior Fruit

1. Nectarine Blueberry Pie by Erin Cox

Category: Junior Cream

1. Chocolate Cream Cow Pie by Heatherann Sibley

Category: Fruit

1. Blueberry of Lemon Pie by Sylvia Willard
2. Request Pie by Sheila Van Inwegen
3. Strawberry Apple Pie by Kate Byth

Judges Honorable Mention:

Blueberry Raspberry Pie by Susan Evans
Bombastic Blueberry Pie by Sidney Callahan and Diana Winter

Category: Nut

1. Creole Pecan Pie by Sheila Van Inwegen
2. Nut Butter and Chocolate Pie by Carolyn Shohet

Pet Show

Chairperson: Jan Burke

submitted by Jan Burke

This year was a great day for the children and pets, we were pleased to meet every single entrant and their family.

Dominic Lombardi brought his gorgeous Dutch rabbit named Twinkie, dressed in his Red Sox jersey!. Twinkie also entered the parade in a grand decorated cage on wheels. Lana Bardzik entered Twitch, a lion-head baby bunny who was a cute little fuzz ball. We had two pet chicken entries: Mia Snorek-Yates brought her bard rock, Blackie and Heatherann Sibley brought three little chicks, Poofy, Chicken-little and Nugget.

We had quite a few dog and puppy entries. Fiona and Finn Gormley introduced Carley, a cute little mutt that reminded the judges of cookies and cream ice cream. Isabel and Morgan Cramer brought their goldendoodles, big brother Chaser and little sister Maddie—they both like to do tricks. Joy, a Yorkie-shih tzu was entered by Cameron Mostoufi and looked really cute in her bow. Emmy McCormack entered Teddy, a Bichon Frise puppy, who was very nervous to be at the show. We enjoyed Gavin Saylor's mini poodle, Thorton, who at 15 years old, still enjoys a game of fetch. Elsa was a gorgeous, white Great Pyrenees puppy, lovingly entered by her owner Eli Svatek. Rhone-Ann Wang brought her extremely well behaved beagle mix, Benny. Issy Neal's Lab, Zin Zan showed the judges how to give paw. The de Alderete family entered Kaiju, an eight-week-old Australian Shepherd, who is a herder and already knows how to sit. Tiller, who came with Ellie Sims, is an English Creme Golden Retriever and could do lots of tricks. A "muffin lovin'" golden named Prairie was accompanied by Sophia Tremblay. Jacob Gechtman entered Lulu, a cute little cockapoo who loves to kiss. A beautiful Greater Swiss Mountain dog named Oreo was entered by Adam Giniger. Eden Burliss showed off all the tricks of Chase, a

Congratulations to the 2014 Road Race winners

1 Mile Road Race – Men's Top Ten

Place-----Time-----Name

- 1 5:39 David Cuomo
- 2 5:43 Jamie Klickstein
- 3 5:54 Theo Ball
- 4 6:00 James Sibley
- 5 6:03 Christopher Ratcliffe
- 6 6:18 Eric Kidder
- 7 6:24 Gregory Gatti
- 8 6:27 Hunter Kendig
- 9 6:28 Richard Sibley
- 10 6:43 Michael Downing

1 Mile Road Race – Women's Top Ten

Place-----Time-----Name

- 1 6:02 Catrina Crowe
- 2 6:11 Lindsay Klickstein
- 3 6:21 Phoebe Parker
- 4 6:27 Isabel Parker
- 5 6:40 Caroline Stevenson
- 6 6:50 Ellen Su
- 7 6:54 Margaux Van Inwegen
- 8 7:00 Susannah Snell
- 9 7:12 Abby Versaggi
- 10 7:16 Charlotte Beakley

5 Mile Road Race – Men's Top Ten

Place -----Time -----Name

- 1 29:33 Matthew Cuomo
- 2 30:16 Josh Elwood
- 3 31:22 Matthew Knight
- 4 31:54 Alejandro Ruiz
- 5 33:20 Todd Thorsen
- 6 33:21 Douglas Stevenson Sr
- 7 33:40 Thomas Ziegler
- 8 34:00 Ron Renaud
- 9 34:16 Richard Ziegler
- 10 34:28 Rich Fine

5 Mile Road Race – Women's Top Ten

Place-----Time-----Name

- 1 35:19 Kaytie Innamorati
- 2 35:58 Bev Halliday
- 3 38:38 Hunter Hutchinson
- 4 40:23 Victoria Abel
- 5 41:09 Charlotte Cabot
- 6 43:33 Christine Rudzinski
- 7 43:40 Joy Mooiweer
- 8 43:43 Julie Meier
- 9 43:49 Maggie Ascolillo
- 10 44:41 Erin Warren

Parade Winners

Parade chairperson Bill Cooney

OHD goers were treated to an especially fun parade this year. The entries were unique and creative just like Carlisle itself and onlookers enjoyed candy and fruit tossed to the crowd from some of the entries. Here are the results of the top entries:

First Place: Clark Farm—Judges thought this entry was a real crowd-pleaser and especially enjoyed the costumes and the delicious strawberries provided to the parade onlookers.

Second Place: Carlisle Artisans—The judges felt the innovative decorations on the vehicle in this entry reflected the artistic abilities and skills of the Carlisle Artisans.

Third Place: Red Balloon Nursery School—Judges found the puppy and “little tweet” costumes worn by paraders in this entry delightful.

Best OHD Theme Interpretation went to the VW Bus for all-over creative and imaginative decoration of their parade vehicle.

Best Animal Entry was awarded to The Carlisle Historical Society whose carriage was drawn by two beautifully decorated horses.

Best Band was bestowed upon the Back Beat Farm Drum Brass Band for providing uplifting and toe-tapping parade music.

Best Kids was given to Carlisle BOH Lyme Disease Committee—The judges thought the costumes worn by the “ticks” in this entry were a novel and creative way to raise everyone’s awareness of tick-borne diseases. And the parading ticks looked like they were having a lot of fun doing that.

Frog Jumping Contest

Chairperson: Steve (The Frogman) Pearlman

Small Frog Category

1. Dylan Kattwinkel
2. Michael Campagna
3. Nick Bonenfant

Large Frog Category

1. Cameron Smack
2. Grace Corfield
3. Mia Forsberg

The winner of the Carlisle School Association 50/50 raffle

The Phyllis and Gordon Bewick family.

The winners of the CSA Selfie Hunt were:

Ava Wagner

Naomi Kablotsky

Olivia Bewick

Linda Xu